EDUCATION

Ph.D. in Geography, Joint Doctoral Program in Geography July 2005
San Diego State University / University of California, Santa Barbara

M.A. in Geography, San Diego State University May 2000

B.A. in Geography and Political Science, Villanova University May 1995
Membership in Gamma Theta Upsilon Honor Society

WORK EXPERIENCE

Director of Data Science Program, George Washington University July 2020 –Present

Associate Professor, Department of Geography May 2011-Present
George Washington University, Director of the Spatial Analysis Lab (SAL) and Center for Urban and Environmental Research (CUER)

Assistant Professor, Department of Geography August 2005-May 2011
George Washington University, Director of the SAL and CUER

Consultant, World Bank May 2015-Present

- Developing methods for estimating variations in poverty and population distributions using remotely sensed observations

Consultant, Fraym June 2018-Present

Consultant, Radiant.Earth Foundation Dec. 2017-Dec. 2018

Consultant, United States Census Bureau, Geographic Studies Branch Sept. 2006-Oct. 2011

- Developed methods for distributing census data over space using multi-scale, optical remotely sensed data for the countries of Haiti, Pakistan, and Rwanda
